

Invitation to Fourth Annual Global Conference on Energy Efficiency
24 – 25 June 2019, Dublin, Ireland

Dear Colleague,

I am pleased to invite you to attend the International Energy Agency's 4th Annual Global Conference on Energy Efficiency, which will take place in Dublin, Ireland on 24 and 25 June 2019.

The Irish Prime Minister, Mr Leo Varadkar will open the conference, which will feature ministers, CEOs and heads of international organisations. Confirmed speakers include the Energy Ministers of Ireland and Luxembourg as well as the CEOs of Siemens USA, Enel X and Saint-Gobain. We expect high-level participants from more than 50 countries.

Please see the attached agenda or visit our website for more details.

A particular focus of this year's discussion will be the impact of digitalisation on energy efficiency, with examples from around the world and implications for policy makers. Other topics will include driving investments, business and policy innovations as well as new approaches to efficiency in the digital age.

Please note that the conference will take place in two venues, located in close proximity in Dublin centre, as follows:

- 24 June at Dublin Castle: opening by the Irish Prime Minister, Mr Leo Varadkar and featuring global dignitaries;
- 25 June at the Mansion House: thematic sessions with experts and leaders on energy efficiency.

To register, and should you have questions or need more information, please contact my colleague Ms. Paola Cajamarca (paola.cajamarca@iea.org; +33 1 40 57 65 40).

We look forward to your participation and contribution to this unique opportunity to advance the global dialogue on energy efficiency.

Yours sincerely,

Dr Brian Motherway
Head of Energy Efficiency
